New Ticonderoga Golf Course Website!

We now have a NEW website launched on a new domain name. The new site looks very much like the old one with just a few new features and improvements. The main reason for the update was to move from TiconderogaCountryClub.com to TiconderogaGolfCourse.com.

Please update any favorites or bookmarks that you may have! If you do type in TiconderogaCountryClub.com, you will be automatically redirected to the new site. The old website is still present so if you happen to end up on an old webpage, there are links available to get you to the new website.

Here's a list of the updates and new features:

- New domain name TiconderogaGolfCourse.com.
- Improved wide screen appearance (fluid design). Improved footer links and display of information.
- Same software platform with additional functionality allowing for a lot more flexibility and improved features in the future.
- Home page with improved photos, more links and more information to help first time visitors quickly navigate to key areas of the website. Quick links on sidebar for the most popular webpages.
- eNews archive with most recent eNewsletters available. eNewsletter signup form is on the right side of most webpages.
- Weather widget is on the right side of most webpages.

The next enhancement items will be additional photos showing all the course renovations / back nine play as well as improved photos from throughout the course showcasing our beautiful and scenic Adirondack golf course.

It has been a pleasure creating, updating, and improving the Ticonderoga Golf Course website. Many of your ideas have been implemented. Thanks for your continued support and suggestions!
